Announcing the Future Executive Director of Community Literacy of Ontario

The Board of Directors of CLO is pleased to announce Catherine Toovey as the future Executive Director

Catherine will be taking on the role in January 2022.

The Board of Directors is pleased to announce the future Executive Director of Community Literacy of Ontario. Catherine Toovey has been selected as the next Executive Director, taking on the role in January 2022.

Catherine is currently the Research and Communications Coordinator for CLO and has been in the role since 2018. Catherine has a ten-year career in digital marketing and has worked in diverse sectors such as cryptocurrency and medical cannabis. Catherine has over four years' experience working with not-for-profits, including the Barrie Women & Children's Shelter. Through her four years of employment with CLO, Catherine has learned a great deal about LBS and the community-based sector, and she has made many contacts in the field. Catherine looks forward to learning even more in her new position and broadening her network of connections.

The current co-Executive Directors, Jette Cosburn and Joanne Kaattari, have previously announced their plans to retire in April 2022. Catherine will step into the role of Executive Director in January 2022, with Jette and Joanne moving to part-time hours to support the new staff transition. More information will be released in January 2022, and there will be an opportunity to meet Catherine and to wish Jette and Joanne a fond farewell over ZOOM.

Together with Catherine and the CLO staff, the Board is looking forward to the next chapter and an exciting future.
