LBS: We're All in This Together Webinar

March 4, 2021

2020 was a year of challenge and change. Ontario's Literacy and Basic Skills organizations responded, adapted, and worked creatively to meet their clients' needs during the COVID-19 pandemic.

QUILL Learning Network, with its partners Community Literacy of Ontario, Literacy Link South Central and Project Read Literacy Network, conducted research into how LBS organizations adapted to the pandemic and are now sharing the findings in a webinar called "LBS: We're All in This Together".

Find out more as we share the results of a province-wide study, and learn about approaches your program can use today, and in the future. Topics will include best practices in administration, marketing, intake, safe re-opening and operating, learning resources, assessment, and professional development.
